THE MISSION IN ONE LINE

Build the homes.
Build what happens around them.

Dominion connects affordable housing with financial empowerment, food security and constructive pathways for young people - creating the foundation from which families and neighborhoods can thrive.

Your company belongs in the room.

A strategic community investment with meaningful visibility, access and alignment.

01 A credible community platform

Align with a Baltimore-based 501(c)(3) advancing housing, economic empowerment, food security and youth opportunity.

02 Executive-level connection

Build relationships with civic leaders, housing professionals, funders and community partners in an intimate setting.

03 High-value brand presence

Receive recognition across applicable event materials, digital channels and podium moments according to your level.

04 A founding-year distinction

Help shape the inaugural Harvest at Hayfields benefit and be recognized among its early corporate partners.

05 Year-round mission alignment

Select levels extend recognition beyond the event through Dominion's website and organizational communications.

06 Community-development relevance

For qualifying institutions, support may align with community-development and CRA objectives; each institution determines eligibility.
